

KIRANA HAAG

COMMISSIONED ARTWORK

Kirana Haag brings to life your feelings and desires in artworks that tell your story.

Let Kirana transform your space into a heartfelt haven of colour and energy with an artwork that truly reflects you and imbues the space you choose to hang it with belonging, beauty and light.

The Process of Discovery

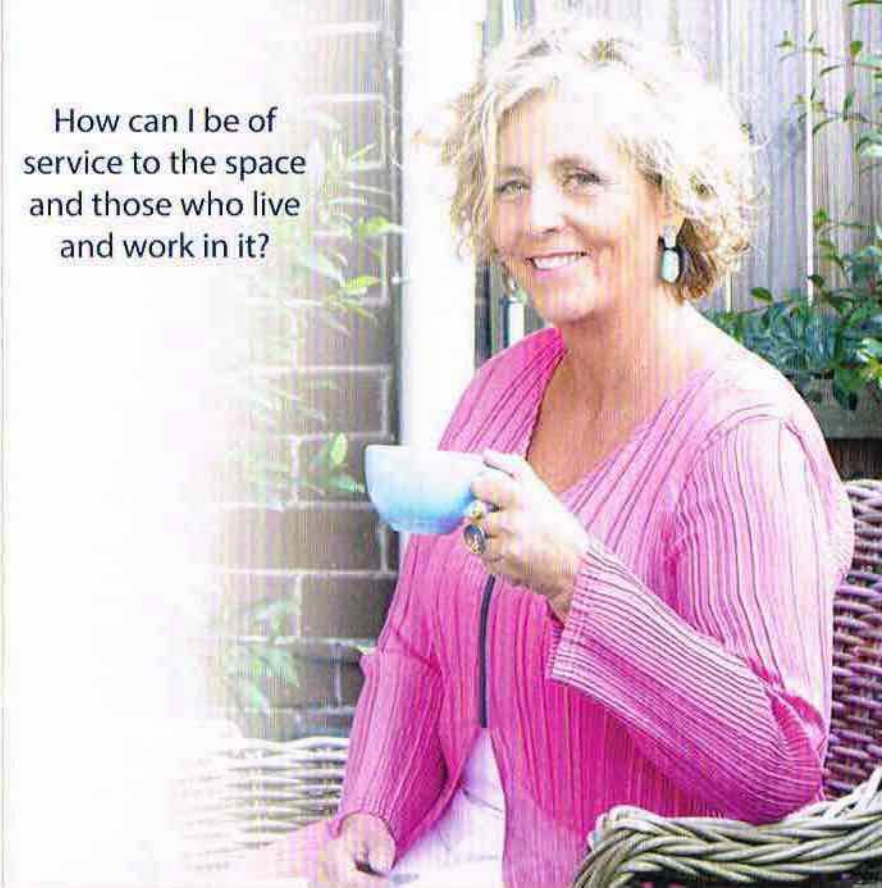

First, Kirana meets with you in the space intended for your artwork, to get a sense of context, connection – and the colours that speak to you. Whether you want art for your home or workplace, Kirana deeply and intuitively listens to your needs and desires, considering the inside and outside spaces, and the people you live or work with.

This highly personalised process allows Kirana to create art that's as individual as you are.

How can I be of service to the space and those who live and work in it?

Your Journey of Co-Creation

ART FOR YOUR PERSONAL SPACE

I am here to bring beauty and love through my art, and my commission work is an intensely collaborative process.

While working with me you are involved in the full experience of creating your personalised artwork, before and during its creation. I work artistically and spiritually, capturing the entire essence of you and your space. I listen intently, using my inner eyes to see, and by hearing and feeling clearly, I make the invisible visible. This way, we create an artwork that will grow with you.

Curious about a commission?
